Thank You to All of the Volunteers Who Made the Agronomy VEISHEA Village Tent a Great Success!

More than 60 faculty, graduate students, and undergrads helped to serve up food and educate thousands of VEISHEA goers about agronomy this past Saturday.

The ever popular Sweet Soil Treat had visitors lined up until 4:00 PM when all of the ingredients were finally exhausted. More than 1000 soil cups were handed out along with explanations of the various layers created by the food. Roughly 1000 bags of popcorn bearing the I’m An agronomist logo were handed out as well.

The display was a great success due to the people who helped. Thank you to all of those who set up at 6:00 AM, ran the tent from 11 until 5, and helped tear everything down afterward. Many hands made light work and created an engaging experience for visitors.

If you missed the tent this year, take a look at the pictures on page two for a taste of the day.
